

Dear partners and friends,

Two years ago the EMEDUS Consortium was charged by the European Commission with the task to elaborate a list of recommendations in order to include media education in compulsory curricula at European schools. Along this period, EMEDUS has deeply analyzed the situation of media education in those countries to finally obtain a sufficiently reliable outcome and some conclusions which will be discussed by stakeholders at the European Media Literacy Forum.

The Forum, which will be held on May 27 and 28 at the UNESCO headquarters in Paris, is co-organized by UNESCO within the frame of the GAPMIL and will bring together experts, teachers, media professionals, industry, audiovisual authorities, researchers, NPOs, and foundations with the aim to relaunch MIL policies at a European level.

To stimulate discussion and to enrich the current debate your presence and participation in this forum is essential. This is the reason why, with great pleasure, we would like to invite you to take part in the sessions that will be organized in the conference.

Given the high participation at the event, we kindly request that you confirm your attendance in order to receive a formal invitation. In the same way, if another member of your team/organization would like to participate in the event, please inform us as soon as possible and we will send him/her an invitation.

In case your organization would like to take part in the Forum as an organizer, please let us know and your logo will be included in the final programme.

Thank you in advance for your cooperation in the Forum.

Looking forward to hearing from you soon.

Yours faithfully,

José Manuel Pérez Tornero

Head of Research for the EMEDUS project.
